CONTENTS

Preface .................................................................................................................................................. 7

PART I .................................................................................................................................................. 9

Erzsébet Rákó
Child Protection System in Romania ......................................................................................... 11

Beata Zinkiewicz
Preventive Activities of Probation Centres for Juvenile Offenders:
Theory and Practice ......................................................................................................................... 21

Zbigniew Pucek
Collective Identity in the Context of Integration ........................................................................ 37

Gyula Szabó
Regional Aspects of the Connections Between Marriage and the Quality of Life in Hungary ................................................................................................ 51

Jolanta Pułka
Standardization process of research tools in social sciences.
The account of the nationwide research on interests and career predispositions of students ............................................................................................................... 63

PART II

Éva Bácsné Bába
Festival in Tune with Students .................................................................................................... 75

Veronika Bocsi
The Hungarian Gypsy Minority from the Viewpoint of Value Sociology .................................. 89

Tomory Ibolya
'Mawe Matatu' – Three Stones, or Warmth of the Family Stove Enculturation in East-Africa .................................................................................. 103
PART III

Barnabás Szilágyi
The Talent-Centred Approach of Managerial Competence Development .................................................................119

Mariann Móré
The Employee Knowledge is the New Opportunity of his Utilisation in the Higher Education.................................................................129

Anita Kozák
Perspectives for Workplace Socialization and the Importance of Organizational Culture in It.................................................................137

Magdolna Láczay
Relations of Social Traditions and Progression Processes in the Enterprises of the Northeastern Region.................................................................147

Zbigniew Makieła
Regional Innovation Systems in the Process of Region Management .................................................................159

Judit Oláh
The Overview of the Different Factors Influencing the Rural Labour Market .................................................................173